Going Too Far Jennifer Echols

In Going Too Far, Jennifer Echols has crafted a compelling story about the connection between two characters who are, in some ways, the very antithesis of each other. Meg won't be tied down, literally. Resistant to plans, authority, confined spaces - she combats restrictions and small-town claustrophobia wit.

Going Too Far: Echols, Jennifer: Amazon.sg: Books

Going Too Far is unapologetic and refuses to pass judgment, instead transferring that responsibility onto the reader. And there are lots of opportunities to judge but I found myself completely unwilling to do so. Echols doesn't sugar coat her prose or her dialogue and captures the do or die essence of adolescence perfectly.
