Book one in the awkward love series and I have read these books out of order so this is the third one of these books and my least favoutite so far. I did enjoy Anna and Nick's story although Nick was no where near alpha enough for me considering the genre of this story - best friends daughter, older man.

Review: It's Complicated by Missy Johnson (Awkward Love #1)

Its complicated or maybe not. This book provides cosy reassurance that teenagers are the same as they have always been and that the internet merely provides them with different ways to connect and communicate. The author dissects teenage online behaviour through a mixture of qualitative research and statistics that generally works well.
